About CIDDNA

CIDDNA is a non-profit nursing association affiliated with the National DDNA. We strive to enhance and nurture the lives of persons we support, promoting their abilities with compassion and professionalism.

As a Chapter of National DDNA, we offer educational opportunities, networking resources, and a supportive environment to empower Developmental Disabilities Nurses in Central Illinois.

This educational offering is geared toward Developmental disabilities but would benefit any nurse, social worker, administrator, QIDP, or professionals interested in advancing knowledge and networking within this dynamic group. ciddna.nursingnetwork.com
